

I am against imposing the federal "established business relationship" exemption on Indiana consumers who have signed up for the "no call" list through the attorney general's office.